Date Your OhMiBod For A Weekend

Let a few lucky listeners date their OhMiBod for a weekend and share live the best songs and play-lists that worked for them on Monday.

Name That OhMiBod Tune

Hook up an OhMiBod in studio and see if the listeners can guess which song the OhMiBod is responding to out of choices A, B, or C. (This one is more for generating laughs because sometimes it is difficult to figure out.)

Create The Ultimate OhMiBod Play List

Listeners submit 10 songs that create the best play list for use with the OhMiBod. The host(s) of the show can pick the winners out of submitted entries or have your listeners vote on the best submissions.

Why I Deserve A Free OhMiBod

Listeners submit the reason why they feel they are most deserving of a free OhMiBod and the most original submissions win a free product.

Two Truths and A Lie

During Suki's interview she says three statements, two of which are true and one that is a lie. The first listener to guess which statement is false wins an OhMiBod. Topics can include sexual health, myths about vibrator use, and OhMiBod facts.
